DOINGS OF A PART OF THE DOTY FAMILY
1599--oo000000000oo--1941

Governor William Bradford, the second Governor of the Plymouth Colony, who succeeded to that office upon the death of Governor Carver in 1621, was himself one of the most prominent members of the Company that landed from the MAYFLOWER in 1620. His "History of Plymouth Plantation" which was completed in 1650 really comprises a diary of his own life there.

In the appendix he gives a list of the "Passengers of the MAYFLOWER" and among his notes and comments we copy the following: "Mr. Stephen Hopkins and Elizabeth, his wife, and 2 children called Giles and Constana, a daughter, both by a former wife; and 2 more by this wife, called Damaris and Oceanus; the last born at sea; and two servants called, Edward Doty and Edward Lister". And then in 1650, he continues: "And seeing that it pleased Him to give me to see thirty years completed since these beginnings; and that the great works of His Providence are to be observed, I have thought it not unworthy my paines to take a view of these decreasings of these persons, and such changes as hath passed over them and theirs in these thirty years". "It may be of some use to such as come after". "But, however, I shall rest in my own benefit, I will take them in order as they lie". And then followes in the same order as in the original list, each family with its changes and in its regular order comes that of Stephen Hopkins from which we copy the following accounts: "Edward Doty and Edward Lister, servants of Stephen Hopkins: Lister, after he was at liberty went to Virginia and died there. But Edward Doty, by a second wife, hath 7 children and he and they are living. (1650).

History tells us that during the European turmoil of the Reformation, the Puritans from sundry towns and villages in Nottinghamshire, Lincolnshire and some from Yorkshire, to escape inconveniences and presecutions removed about 1608-9 to the Low Countries, (Holland). There came also from London and other parts of England. After a few years residence at Amsterdam and Laydon uner the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Robinson, they discovered that their surroundings were not compatible to their ideals and having learned of beautiful Virginia across the Atlantic they proposed to go and settle there in distinct body under the general government of that Colony. They sent two agents to England to ask permission of the Plymouth Company to settle within their domain, and yet to guarantee from the King that they would not be molested in their new home. The Company readily consented but the King would not give a written promise--only his word--which could not be trusted. The discouraged refugees sent other agents to England in 1619 and finally made arrangements with the Company and others for their settlement in Virginia. It was agreed that only a portion of the congregation--"The youngest and the strongest"--should first go to America, under the spiritual guidance of Elder Wm. Brewster, the others to remain in Holland with Rev. Robinson and follow the next year.

About the first of August, 1620, after many delays they sailed to Southampton and on the 15th the MAYFLOWER and the SPEEDWELL sailed from that port for the NEW WORLD with 120 passengers, some of whom had just joined their company. Disaster to the SPEEDWELL compelled a return of both vessels to Plymouth, England, where she was abandoned and some of the passengers gave up the voyage.

But on Sept. 6th (O.S.), the MAYFLOWER, with the remaining 102 passengers finally sailed and after a stormy voyage of sixty-five days dropped anchor at Provincetown, Cape Cod Bay, on November 11th.

Disaffection with the general interests of the party had appeared during the voyage sufficient to create suspicion of future trouble in the Colony after their landing, and it is probable, owing to this that the famous "COMPACT" was drawn up and signed by all the male members of the party and among them was our ancestor, Edward Doty.

Since the MAYFLOWER had dropped anchor their first duty was to find a suitable place for their habitation in the NEW WORLD. There were sixteen of their number volunteered to go on land and make such discoveries as they might. They feared many dangers and hardships in this new land so they went well armed for personal defense. Under the leadership of Captain Miles Standish and William Bradford, they started on Nov. 15th and were gone for several days marching along the side of the sea. They encountered much bad weather, and several weeks passed before they found a suitable harbor for landing. Finally on Monday, Dec. 11th (21 N.S.) they found a place where they went ashore, calling it Plymouth Rock. The members of this famous scouting party were: Captain Miles Standish, Mr. Brewster, Wm. Bradford; Edward Winslow, John Tilley, John Howland, and three of London: Richard Warren, Stephen Hopkins and Edward Doty; two seamen: John Alderton and Thomas English; and of the ship's company there went two of the Master Mates: Master Clark and Master Copin, the Master Gunner and three sailors. Their struggles and hardships and final success are fully covered in any authentic history of New England.

In searching public records and the early history of the Plymouth Colony together with the general history of that date, the lives of his associates and their environments, and the inspection of the locality and its surroundings give the following impressions of our noted ancestor: A tall and well-built man with a strong constitution, a frame well-knit together and accustomed to hard work; active and full of life, and perhaps with a surplus of energy: a man with no education and yet with an active mind and that knowledge that comes quickly to a close observer from experience. He was of a kind nature and good intentions but tenacious of his own to the extent of demanding his own personal rights and obstinate in maintaining them. Probably when he landed, a youth, he did not possess any of the religious feeling which actuated the leaders of the Colony, but by close association soon learned to admire their inflexible honesty, industry, integrity and morality of their lives.

There is nothing in the records to show definitely where Edward Doty was born nor when. Search for his ancestry has been diligently made in England and France but with no avail. It is said that during the World War contact was made with an English soldier of the same name and he related that our ancestor was the youngest son of a Scotch Baron and because of their custom in those days of passing estates to the eldest son and thus cutting off the younger ones entirely of their inheritance Edward Doty left his home and went to London where he became interested in the voyage to America. Since he was treated with the same consideration as all other members of the Company we can only assume that he had attained his majority about the time of the landing, hence we recon his birth in 1599.

The Colonial record states that on January 6, 1634, he married Faith

Clarke, his second wife; nothing has been learned regarding his first marriage. Faithe Clarke was borne in 1619, and at that time was but fifteen years of age, the daughter of Thursten Clarke and Faithe, his wife. They came to Plymouth from Ipswich, Suffolk, England on the Francis, he being at that time forty-four years old, Edward Doty lived at the Highcliff where all their children were born. It is shown that he was a private in the Military Co. at Plymouth in 1643. His death occurred at Plymouth, August 23, 1655. His will is dated three months earlier, and as it states him then sick, it is probable that his illness was several months duration. His "Will" is recorded as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. May 20, 1655.
 Know all men by these presents, to whom it may concern, that I, Edward Doten, Sen 'r of the town of New Plymouth, in New England, being sick, and yet by the mercy of God in perfect memory, and upon mature consideration do by this last will and testament leave and bequeath my purchase land lying at Coaksett unto my sons: my son Edward I give a double portion and to the rest of my sons equal alike, and if they live to the age of twenty and one; if they die before then to be parted among the rest, only to my wife I leave a third during her life and then after to return to my sons. And to my loving wife I give and bequeath my house and lands and meadows within the precincts of New Plymouth, together with all the chattels and moveables that are my proper goods, only debts and engagements to be paid. As for my share of land at Punckquesett, it it comes to anything, I give to my son, Edward. This being my last will and testament.

I, Edward Doten, do owne it for my act and deed before these my loving friends, who are my witnesses, and do set my hand to same, the day and year above mentioned".

The children of Edward Doty and Faithe Clarke are as follows:

| 8. Joseph, | b. Apr. 30, 1651 | d. about 1731 |
| 9. Mary, | b. probably 1653, of whom nothing is known further than is shown by the settlement of her mother's estate in 1677, at which time she was not married. | |

On March 14th, 1667, Mrs. Faithe Doty married at Plymouth, Mass., John Phillips, of Marshfield, Mass.. Mr. Phillips was born in England in 1602. He resided successively at Plymouth, Duxbury and Marshfield. He died there in 1667. Mrs. Phillips resided after her second marriage at Marshfield, and her younger children moved there with her. She died in December 1675, and was buried in the old cemetery at Marshfield, Dec. 21, 1675.

-4- SAMUEL DOTY, the fourth son of Edward Doty and Faithe Clarke, was the ancestor of a very large and influential branch of the Doty family, who from the state of New Jersey have gone forth as pioneers to the west and south. He spent a part of his early life at sea as did several of his elder brothers, but later years found him employed as a farmer. It is not definitely known just when he left Plymouth, Mass., but his trail was caught by old records at Piscataway, Middlesex County, New Jersey, where in 1675, it is shown that he was commissioned lieutenant of the military company of New Piscataway, of which Francis Drake was Captain. This commission was renewed in 1678.

Samuel Doty lived to a greater age than did his father or elder brothers and his posterity have been noted for their longevity. It is gathered from old records that he was intelligent, industrious and thrifty; a man of ability and authority. The sterling characters of their children and their uniformly upright christian lives show good training on the part of their parents, and that patriotism was one of the virtues inculcated is evidence by the service of his immediate descendants in the Indian Wars of 1756 and the Revolution.

Samuel Doty and Jane Harmon of Piscataway, New Jersey, were married on Nov. 15, 1678, retaining their residence there where they raised a family of thirteen children.

10. Samuel,	b. Aug. 27, 1679.	d. probably 1750.
11. John,	b. probably 1680.	d. probably 1766.
12. Sarah,	b. Mar. 2, 1681-2.	d. no record.
13. Isaac,	b. Aug. 12, 1683.	d. no record.
14. EDWARD ,	b. May 14, 1685.	d. Nov. 1717.
15. James,	b. Sept 17, 1686.	d. no record.
16. Jonathan,	b. Feb. 24, 1687-8.	d. no record.
17. Benjamin,	b. May 14, 1691.	d. Princeton, N.J., 1746.
18. Elizabeth,	b. Feb. 26, 1695.	d. no record.
19. Joseph,	b. Oct. 30, 1696.	d. Sept 10, 1768.
20. Daniel,	b. Mar. 9, 1701-2.	d. no record.
21. Margaret,	b. Mar. 5, 1704-5.	d. no record.
22. Nathaniel,	b. probably 1707-8.	d. no record.

The names of John and Nathaniel are not given in the town register, however, they are both shown on the church record, hence the dates of their births are problematical.

-14- EDWARD DOTY, was the fifth child of Samuel Doty and Jane Harmon. There is but very little information obtainable of this family. His "WILL", a record of which is in the office of the Secretary of State at Trenton, N.J., is dated Oct. 18, 1717, and was proved Nov. 19, 1717, evidencing the fact that his death occurred shortly after it had been signed. Nothing has been learned of his wife other than that her given name was Sarah and this is found in the record of his "Will". Their three children were born at Piscataway, N.J..

- | | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------|----------------|
| 23. JOHN , | b. probably 1712. | d. about 1790. |
| 24. Jeremiah , | b. probably 1714. | d. about 1790. |
| 25. Sarah, | b. probably 1715. | d. no record |

-23- JOHN DOTY, the elder son of Edward Doty and wife Sarah, was married, probably in Somerset County, N.J., but the name of his wife has never been learned, due no doubt, to the fact that a great many of the records of this part of the State were destroyed by the British Army during the Revolutionary War. However, the military records has him listed as a private in Captain Jacob TenEyck's Company, First Battalion, Somerset County Militia. They probably lived in Somerville, N.J., where he died about 1778. Their children were born in Somerset County, N.J..

26. Jeremiah, never married. Died in Somerville, N.J.. Was probably a soldier in the same Company with his father.
27. Sarah, married William Spader. They lived in New York City and raised a family there.
28. Maria, married James Voorhees.
29. John, b. 1756. d. Apr. 1819 Knox Co. N.J.
30. PETER, b. about 1758. d. Brooke Co. Va. 1819.
31. Catharine, married Voorhees, probably a brother of James noted above. They moved to "Redstone County", Ohio.
32. Elizabeth, never married. She lived in New York City with her sister, Mrs. Spader.
33. Jane, married William Chivis, lived in New York City.
34. Cornelius, b. May 5, 1765 d. no record.
35. Margaret, married Daniel Spader, lived in New York City.

-30- PETER DOTY, was the fifth child of John Doty and wife. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, served as a private in the First Battalion, Somerset County, New Jersey Militia. He also served as a private in the New Jersey State Troops.

About 1778, he married Catharine Powelson, the fifth child of Johannes Powelson and Hermina Messler of Middlebush, New Jersey, who were members of the Harligen Reformed Dutch Church. She was born Sept. 11, 1751. The Powelson's came from Holland to America, landing at New Amsterdam, (New York City), Jan. 24, 1640. Some authorities claim they came from Denmark via Holland, which is probable.

The above paragraph is an authenticated correction of the Doty-Doten Book.. Refer to the history of Hunterdon and Somerset Counties, N.J. by Snell, page 690 and VanDoorn Family page 718.

According to the records of wills and deeds it has been determined that they lived in the town of Roxbury, Morris County, N.J.. Here their children were born and where the family remained until about 1796, when the two brothers, John and Peter, emigrated to Brooke County, Virginia, (now West Virginia) and lived nearly opposite the city of Stubenville, Ohio.

Here follows his "Will" as recorded in Will Book #2, page 98, Brooke County, West Virginia, at Wellsburgh.

"I, Peter Doty, Senior of Brooke County, State of Virginia, calling to mind the mortality of my body, do hereby make this, my last Will and Testament, Jan. 25th, in the year of our Lord 1817. First of all, allow my personal estate to be publicly sold, so soon after my decease as it may be convenient, with the exception of beds and bedding, also my real estate at any time within sixteen months after my decease, either at public or private sale, and for which payments and credits as may appear best to my executors. I give and bequeath to my wife, Martha, one bedstead, bed and bedding, also $50.00 a year, and yearly for two years, and afterwards $40.00 a year and yearly during her natural life. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Sarah, $500.00 for her maintenance and support at the discretion of my executors and if any part thereof should remain at her decease, to be equally divided between my daughter, Mary Wells, my son Abraham and my son Peter. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Catharine Solomon $50.00 to be paid when the last payment may be received for my land".

"I give and bequeath to my son, John, $50.00 to be paid when the last payment for the land is received, and all the remainder of the price of the personal and real estate, after my first debts are paid, to be equally divided among my daughter, Mary Wells and my son Abraham and my son Peter, with the exception of a bedstead, bed and bedding which I give and bequeath to my daughter, Sarah, above mentioned".

"Acknowledged in the presence of:

John Chambers

William Atkinson, Brooke County, Virginia".

Land transfers:

Peter Doty and wife, Catharine bought land in 1801.

Peter Doty and wife, Catharine transfer a part of the same land at Hollidays Cove to Samuel Solomon. (151 acres).

The land described in sale to Samuel Solomon is the same as that described in first purchase of land by Peter Doty and wife, Catharine. The Martha mentioned in the Will was the second wife of Peter Doty.

The names of Peter Doty's children are as follows:

36. ABRAHAM, b. Nov. 4, 1779. d. Feb. 28, 1843.
37. Sarah, probably never married as the Will provided for her support during her life.
38. John, b. about 1784. It is said that he married in Brooke County and later moved south. Further trace of the family has not been found.

39. Peter, b. about 1786-90, married and moved to Licking County, O., or perhaps to Marion Co., Indiana where they had three children.
40. Catharine, b. about 1789-90, married Samuel Solomon as recorded in land transfers in Brooke Co., Va.
41. Mary, b. about 1786-90, married Joseph Wells. They lived in Knox County, O. where they had ten children.

-36- ABRAHAM DOTY, the eldest child of Peter Doty and Catharine Powelson came with his parents from New Jersey when they settled in Brooke County, Virginia in 1796. Here he attained his majority and on Nov. 17, 1801 married Mary Barr who was born Apr. 25, 1782. It is said that her ancestors came from Scotland or Ireland where they were known by the name of Dunbar, but after they determined to establish their citizenship in this country they changed it to Barr. It is said that he was drafted into the army during the War of 1812 but due to his family of small children was exempted from service.

After their marriage they lived in Brooke, Co., Va., until 1814 when they moved to Milton Tp., Richland Co., O. where they lived for eight years, then sold and bought a farm about four miles west of Uniontown, now known as Ashland. There were few settlers here at this time and they had to endure many hardships.

The War of 1812 had ended propitiously and imigrants soon began to arrive in this region and the woodman's ax was heard early and late clearing away the timber for log cabins and their future farms.

Abraham Doty gave his influence and means in the erection of school houses and churches for the spread of education and intelligence among the rising generation and instructed his own children that intelligence, morality, and integrity gave all men influence among their companions and neighbors. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and one of the pioneers of "Old Hopewell Presbyterian Church" of which he served as an elder for many years. Their youngest children were born in Ohio.

42. James,	b. Sept 5, 1803.	d. Jan. 4, 1879.
43. Peter,	b. July 22, 1804.	d.
44. Elizabeth,	b. Aug. 31, 1806.	d. 1896.
45. John,	b. June 15, 1809.	d. Dec. 3, 1885.
46. Joseph,	b. Aug. 2, 1812.	d. Nov. 19, 1890.
47. Martha,	b. June 14, 1814.	d. Aug. 29, 1877.
48. Jackson,	b. June 4, 1816.	d. May 5, 1892.
49. Samuel,	b. Sept 18, 1818.	d. Feb. 19, 1899.
50. Mary,	b. Sept 16, 1820.	d. Mar. 10, 1898.
51. Sarah,	b. Sept 18, 1822.	d. 1864.
52. Jane,	b. June 19, 1827.	d. Nov. 19, 1892.

The above names and dates of birth are copied from the Abraham Doty family Bible now in possession of Miss Mary Cristee of Marysville, Ohio, also sworn to under oath by her before copied herein by the historian. The dates of deaths are as authentic as later records have been made gathered from the various children or grandchildren or copied from obituaries or local County Historians.

In 1940 the status of the family of Abraham Doty as herewith compiled is as given below. Following the names of his children are the number of each succeeding generation in separate column.

JAMES DOTY

THE JAMES DOTY FAMILY

JAMES DOTY, the eldest son of Abraham Doty and Mary Barr, was a lad of thirteen years when his parents moved from Brooke Co., Va. to their newly selected home in the woods a few miles west of the town of Ashland, Ohio in 1814. This part of the country had not as yet been cleared of the hostile Indian and for a time their pioneering life was an anxious, trying ordeal. Here he grew to manhood surrounded by the trying experiences of all who first braved to break into the wilderness west of the mountains.

In 1823 he married Sarah Croninger, daughter of Leonard Croninger and wife, Mary. His pioneering experiences had made him quite popular and when, in 1846, Ashland County was set apart principally from the territory of Richland County, he received the appointment of Sheriff until the regular election irrespective of politics. He was then elected for one term by the Democratic Party. His deputies were Mathew Clugston and Isaac Hull. He refused further political honors and a Mr. Gates was his successor. In 1856 he moved to Plymouth Township, Richland County, and was a very successful farmer there. He was a Presbyterian in faith and at his death one of his children composed the following poem in his memory.

"Father, thou hast gone from earth,
Thy suffering's now are o'er;
Thy toils are all ended,
Thy life's work is done.
Thy tired limbs are resting,
The battle now is won."

"Thy dear old hands are folded
Across thy peaceful breast;
Thou art peacefully sleeping,
Thou art gone to thy rest.
Gone to meet thy loved ones
Robed in garments of white
Waiting thy coming
To the mansions of light."

"Thou hast crossed the dark river
To that bright shining shore;
Thou hast left us forever
And thy love we deplore.
In Vain will we seek thee
We know thou wilt not come
From that shining shore
Of your beautiful home."

"A father's hands are beckoning us,
Another call is given;
But ah! there is a thought, father,

-1- LEWIS DOTY, the eldest child of James Doty and Sarah Croninger, was born in Richland Co., Ohio, and died at Oxford, Iowa. His early life was spent in his native state on the farm. In the winter of 1848-49 he made a journey on horseback to Iowa and made an entry of land in what is now Oxford Twp., Johnson Co. Returning to Ohio, he married on Jun. 14, 1849, Miss Hannah Mason, a daughter of Charles Mason and Lydia Alexander. Miss Mason was born in Richland Co., Ohio, Mar. 19, 1829. She taught in the public schools there for several years. In 1851 they moved to Iowa and established their home on the land he had entered on his former visit. Here they lived and raised their family of five children. His being one of the pioneers of Oxford Twp., he was always ready to lend a helping hand to advance the wellbeing of his neighborhood. They built a log school house where their children went to school and to church in their early days. During a severe illness in 1882 his thoughts ran into a strain of "The Life Beyond" and he decided to become a Christian. His after life was a devoted one and the home was ever the headquarters for ministers and elders of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In the early 80's he decided to leave the farm and moved to the town of Oxford where he lived until his death. Rev. R.D. Pool officiated at the funeral services using for his text these words: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord! -2- LUTHER DOTY, the second child of the James Doty family, was born and grew to manhood on a farm near Mansfield, Ohio. Here he received what was considered at that time a good education in the public schools. In 1849 he married Elizabeth Kagy, daughter of Isaac Kagy, born in Richland Co., Ohio in 1832. The wife died in 1850 shortly after the birth of a child, which followed her demise at the age of three months. In 1851 he married Mary Hilbourn, daughter of Amos Hilbourn and wife, Mary. In 1854 Mr. Doty moved to Iowa and lived on a farm near Oxford where six of their children were born. Here Feb. 13, 1882, the second wife passed away and having been left with a family of small children and desiring to keep them in the home circle he again married. The third wife was a widow, Mrs. Jane Buckner. In 1885 he moved to Pilger, Neb. where he died. The third wife was the mother of three children.

Very shortly after moving to Iowa Mr. Doty was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and while always taking a deep interest in the local public and political affairs, his daily life was of an exemplary Christian. He always settled the questions of his daily life upon the basis of right and then was as firm as a rock in his path of duty. He was always on duty for his Master, ever willing to lend a helping hand to the poor and needy. The funeral services were held in Pilger, Neb., the remains were buried at Wisner, Neb. followed thither by many of his staunch friends and neighbors. The children follow.

-35- WALTER PETTIT DOTY, the only child of Claude W. Doty and Stella Pettit, was always an exemplary young man and found much pleasure in attending church school and singing in boys choruses and while quite young became a wireless enthusiast. He started his education while in Detroit, Mich. and completed his high school studies at Trinity Church School in New York City in 1913. He then went to the Navy Yard at Brooklyn, took and successfully passed a competitive examination for Wireless Operator's License which enabled him to act in the capacity of Chief Wireless Operator on any ocean-going vessel. This accomplishment was a great incentive for him and he immediately took to the sea. During four years in this service he visited Germany, France, England, and every seaport in Cuba, Puerto Rico, Haiti, Santa Domingo, and every country on the east and north coasts of South America from Argentina to Venezuela. The experience during these four years proved more practical and beneficial in his life than he had acquired with college doors.

In 1919 he definitely gave up the sea and enrolled at Columbia University, New York City. In 1920 he accepted a tempting offer of Chief Inspector with Ship Owners Radio Service. After a year at Norfolk, Va. this company transferred him to New Orleans, La. where he was given the opportunity of organizing and managing the radio department of a large wholesale electrical house, which position he held for another year.

In 1922, discovering that he had given up his academic work too soon, he returned to college attending Nashotah, a church school 29 miles west of Milwaukee, Wis. Here he took a year's special work preparatory to entrance upon a three years course in the Theological Seminary.

Upon the completion of this work he married Miss Adelaide Margaret Gerend at Kaukauna, Wis. on Sep. 6, 1923. She was born at Kaukauna Jul. 26, 1899, a daughter of Joseph and Mary Gerend. Her father was a stationery engineer in one of the local industries there. Mrs. Doty had acquired her education in the schools of her native town, graduated from Ontagganne County Normal in 1914 at the age of 15. A year previously she had received a diploma from St. Mary's School of Music. She taught in the public schools of Wisconsin for nine years previous to her marriage.

Immediately after their marriage they started their migratory honeymoon in one of Henry Ford's early models. It patiently bore them over plain, mountain, and desert and in due time arrived in Los Angeles, Calif. He at once took a position in the radio department of a hardware store to supply funds to complete his studies.

In 1924 he matriculated as a student in the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in San Francisco where he remained three years, graduating in 1927. He was ordained Deacon in the Episcopal Church on May 26, 1926 at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco by Bishop Edward Bambe Parsons of the diocese of California. On the following Mar. 15, 1927 he was ordained a priest at All Saints Church, San Francisco by the same bishop. His first charge as a priest was at Holy Innocents Church on Fair Oaks St. where he enjoyed a most fruitful ministry. On Oct. 15, 1928 he was called to be assistant minister at St. Paul's Cathedral in Los Angeles. While in Los Angeles he further fitted himself by taking one term's work in California Christian College.

Eighteen months later he passed a competitive examination for a commission in the Chaplains Corps of the U.S. Navy. His first year of service in this capacity was in the 11th and 19th Submarine Divisions aboard the U.S.S. Holland stationed at San Diego, Ca. In 1930 he was transferred to the U.S. Naval Station at Guantanamo, Cuba. Since 1933 he has had charge of a parish in New York City.

JOSEPH DOTY

THE JOSEPH DOTY FAMILY

JOSEPH DOTY, fifth child of Abraham Doty and Mary Barr, came with his parents from Brooke Co., Va. to Richland Co., Ohio in 1814 and grew to manhood on a farm a few miles west of Ashland, Ohio. His education was limited to the advantages of the neighborhood school. On Dec. 6, 1838 he married Miss Rachel Lambright, born Nov. 11, 1819, whose parents were among the pioneers of the southern part of the county and who experienced some very thrilling encounters with the Indians in the vicinity of Copus Hill. Her uncle, John Lambright, was a soldier under Gen. Anthony Wayne in his successful campaign against the Indians under Chief Little Turtle at Ft. Wayne, Indiana and down the Maumee River. According to her baptismal certificate she was received into church membership at the Evangelical Lutheran Church at Mount Zion, Ohio, six miles south of Mifflin, Ohio on May 14, 1836.

The Doty family always lived on a farm a few miles northeast of Mifflin. Mr. Doty did carpenter work along with his farm duties. They raised their family in the Presbyterian faith. He was a man of considerable influence, politically a Democrat. He died Nov. 19, 1890, the wife survived until Dec. 25, 1896. Both are interred at Mifflin, Ohio. They raised eight of their nine children.

THE JACKSON DOTY FAMILY

JACKSON DOTY was the seventh child of Abraham Doty and Mary Barr. He married Sarah Ann Jaques who was the mother of three children. It is said that she died while the children were quite young and the family was broken up and the children scattered. Mr. Doty was an attorney first practicing at Urbana, Ohio, then moved to Missouri and after a short time went to Centralia, Ill. He was of an eccentric sort of fellow and to be different from his immediate family he persisted in spelling his name "DOUGHTY". Since he served in Company K, 113th Ohio Infantry during the Civil War he must have been past 45 years of age when he enlisted for service. Mrs. James Hulburt Doty stated before her death that she remembered him as an attorney while in Urbana, Ohio and that she remembered that his second wife's name was Miss Roach of that place. It is further stated that there was a son and a daughter born to the second wife but this has not been authenticated.

The records of the Soldiers Home at Dayton, Ohio show that he entered the home on Ju. 9, 1891 registering from Centralia, Ill. and that he died there on May 5, 1892. His grave is #15, row 8, Section I. The names of his children are given as follows:

| 2. Margaret Ann | b. | d. |
| 3. Edward Rutledge | b. Sep. 6, 1850 | d. Dec. 28, 1938 |

-3- EDWARD RUTLEDGE DOTY, son of Jackson Doty and Sarah Ann Jaques, was born at Marysville, Ohio. He spent his youth in Ohio during which he learned the printers trade. He worked for the B. & O. RR. for five years as brakeman and baggageman with headquarters at Garrett, Ind. After quitting the railroad he went to Oxford, Iowa and again took up the work of printing. In 1883 he became publisher of the Oxford Leader, which later became The Johnson County Democrat. For many years his paper was printed on a Washington hand-press.

While a resident of Oxford Mr. Doty was married, Sep. 3, 1884 Anne Elizabeth Rapp, who was his faithful companion throughout his long life. In 1913 he left Oxford and edited Democratic papers in several towns in Iowa until 1925 when he took over the Malcolm Leader. In 1934 he retired from active work and moved to Grinnell, Iowa where he lived during his declining years.

Mr. Doty was a lifelong Democrat as most of his clan have been and are today. He was a man of independent spirit and firm of conviction throughout his entire life. After a month's illness at his home in Grinnell he passed to his reward at the age of 88.

Mr. and Mrs. Doty were the parents of five children, one of whom died in infancy, Mrs. L.C. Whitford of Ottumwa, Iowa, and Pauline, Leonore, and Wade of Grinnell. The three younger are all members of the Grinnell Herald Register staff.

-1- ELMIRA DOTY, eldest child of Samuel Doty and Emiline Cordell, was born near Ashland, Ohio, and died at Hutchenson, Kansas. She married William Henry Harrison Judd, October 4, 1866 at Oceola, Ohio. Mr. Judd was born in Bucks County, PA., May 1, 1840, the son of John Carver Judd (1790-1875), who emigrated from Wurttemberg, Germany to Pennsylvania at the close of the Franco-Prussian War, in which he served, and his second wife, Marguerite Rerr, (Michael-3, Jacob-2, Johann Heinrich-1) was born in 1810, died 1868, whom he married in 1834 in Bucks Co., PA.

Mr. Judd was a miller and followed that trade until 1888 when the family moved to Findlay, OH., then in the midst of the great oil boom. There he became associated with the Ohio Oil Company, getting out rig timber for them in the Ohio and Illinois fields until 1914. He continued in various lines of gainful employment until 1922, then in his 82nd year.

He was a member of the First Regiment, Independent Regulars of the Ohio Battery Volunteers, serving the entire period of the Civil War in Capt. George P. Kirkland's Company, and during his last years seldom missed the annual Encampment of the G.A.R. His retentive memory, which served him to the end, made possible a real enjoyment of these meetings with war-time comrades. He died Aug. 26, 1930, after an illness of only two days, while visiting a daughter in Casper, Wyo., and is buried beside Mrs. Judd in Maple Grove Cemetery, Findlay, OH.

Elmira Doty was one of the ardent workers who helped to found and loyally support throughout her life, a much needed church in a rapidly growing section of their new city - the Third Methodist Episcopal of Findlay, Ohio. They were the parents of nine children.
